Questions

TO CONSIDER

1. What stood out to you as you listened to the message today? What did you learn about God....about yourself?

2. In the famed verse in Micah 6:8, God reveals what matters to Him: “He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness [mercy], and to walk humbly with your God.” What does “doing justice, loving kindness, and walking humbly with God” look like in your everyday life?

3. Living for the approval of others (people’s opinions mattering more than God’s) is a form of idolatry . What are some practical ways to protect yourself from engaging in this?

Questions

TO CONSIDER

4. Like the people of Micah's day, we too can fall into a season of going through the motions in our Christian life. What might be some warning signs that you've fallen into this pattern of living? How can you re-align your heart so your life reflects the vibrant life of faith that God desires?

5. Read Philippians 2:1-11. What is true humility? Using Christ's example of humility in this chapter, how can you cultivate a heart that is ready to do justice, love mercy, and walk humbly with God??

6. What's one practical step you can take to make what you've learned today a reality in your life?

Notes

O people,
the LORD
has told you
what is good, and
this is what he requires
of you: to do
what is right, to love
mercy, and
to walk
humbly with your God.

Micah 6:8

Don't be selfish; don't try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves. Don't look out only for your own interests, but take an interest in others, too.

You must have the same attitude that Christ Jesus had.

Philippians 2:3-5
