Questions

TO CONSIDER

1. What stood out to you as you listened to the message today? What did you learn about God....about yourself?

2. The building of anything for the glory of God will always invite attack. In what ways can the enemy interfere in the rebuilding of broken places? How can you identify him and overcome his schemes to thwart the rebuilding process?

3. Rebuilding broken places requires your cooperation alongside the grace of God. Nehemiah certainly didn't rebuild the walls of Jerusalem alone. How can others play a part in your rebuilding? And, on the other hand, how can you play a role in the rebuilding of another's broken places?

Questions

TO CONSIDER

4. Why are good boundaries a necessity for rebuilding broken places?

5. What's one practical step you can take to make what you've learned today a reality in your life?

God says, "Rebuild the road! Clear away the rocks and stones so my people can return from captivity."

Isaiah 57:14

Notes

They will rebuild the ancient
ruins,
repairing
cities
destroyed
long ago.
They will
revive them,
though they
have been deserted for many generations.

Isaiah 61:4

The high and lofty one who lives in eternity, the Holy One, says this: "I live in the high and holy place with those whose spirits are contrite and humble. I restore the crushed spirit of the humble and revive the courage of those with repentant hearts.

Isaiah 57:15
